II. PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT

 Methods and Routes of Transportation.
 (a) As the Vessel is engaged in liner service the intended voyage shall not be limited to the direct route but shall be deemed to include any proceeding or returning to or stopping or slowing down at or off any ports or places for reasonable purpose connected with the service including maintenance of the Vessel and crew, and the Vessel may sail with or without pilots, undergo repairs, adjust equipment, drydock, be towed or low vessels in all situations. (b) Whether expressly arranged beforehand or otherwise, the Carrier shall be at liberty to carry the goods to their port of destination by the said or other vessel or vessels either belonging to the Carrier or others, or by other means of transport, proceeding either directly or indirectly to such port and to carry the goods or part of them beyond their port of destination, and to tranship, land and store the goods either on shore or afloat and reship and forward the ame at the Carrier's expense but at the Merchant's risk.

(a) The Carrier shall have the right to stow goods by means of containers trailers, transportable tanks, flats, pallets, or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods.

(b) The Carrier shall have the right to carry containers, trailers, transportable tanks and covered flats, whether stowed by the Carrier or received by him in a stowed condition from the Merchant on or under deck without notice to

6. Hindrances etc. Affecting Performance.

(a) The Carrier shall use reasonable endeavours to complete the performance of this Contract.

(b) If at any time the performance of the Contract as evidenced by this Sea Waybill is or will be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind, and if by virtue of sub-clause 6(a) the Carrier has no duty to complete the performance of the Contract, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may elect to treat the performance of this Contract as terminated and place the goods at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier shall deem safe and convenient.

(c) If the Merchant has not taken delivery of the goods within the time designated by the Carrier, the Carrier shall be at liberty to put the goods in safe custody on behalf of the Merchant at the latter's risk and expense, and, if not taken delivery of, to sell the same privately or by auction after 14 days.

(d) In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full freight for goods received for transportation and additional compensation for extra costs resulting from the circumstances referred to above.

7. Lighterage.

Any customary, local lightering in or off ports of loading or ports of discharge shall be for the account and risk of the Carrier.

8. Loading, Discharging and Delivery.

(a) Loading, discharging and delivery of the cargo shall be arranged by the Carrier's Agent unless otherwise agreed.

(b) All costs for storing and handling of the goods before loading and after discharge shall be for the Merchant's account.

(c) Loading and discharging may commence without previous notice.

(d) The Merchant or its Assigns shall tender the goods when the Vessel is ready to load and as fast as the Vessel can receive and - but only if required by the Carrier - also outside ordinary working hours notwithstanding any custom of the port.

Otherwise the Carrier shall be relieved of any obligation to load such cargo and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid.

(e) The Merchant or its Assigns shall take delivery of the goods and continue (e) the wertraint or its Assigns shall take delivery of the goods and continue to receive the goods as fast as the Vessel can deliver and - but only if required by the Carrier - also outside ordinary working hours notwithstanding any custom of the port. Otherwise the Carrier shall be at liberty to discharge the goods and any discharge shall be deemed a true fulfilment of the Contract, or alternatively to act under Clause 6.

(f) The Merchant shall bear all overtime charges in connection with tendering and taking delivery of the goods as above

(g) The Merchant shall accept its reasonable proportion of unidentified loose cargo.

9. Optional Ports of Discharge.

The port of discharge for optional cargo must be declared to the Vessel's Agents at the first of the optional ports not later than 48 hours before the Vessel's arrival there. In the absence of such declaration the Carrier may elect to discharge at the first or any other optional port and the contract of carriage shall then be considered as having been fulfilled. Any option can be exercised for the total quantity under this Sea Waybill only

III. CARRIER'S LIABILITY

10. Liability for Carriage Between Port of Loading and Port of Discharge.

The International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 25 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Contract. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply, irrespective of whether such legislation may only regulate outbound shipments.

When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in either the country of shipment or in the country of destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Contract save where the Hague Rules as enacted in the country of shipment or if no such enactment is in place, the Hague Rules as enacted in the country of destination apply compulsorily to this Contract.

The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.

The Carrier shall in no case be responsible for loss of or damage to cargo arising prior to loading, after discharging, or while the cargo is in the charge of another carrier, or with respect to deck cargo and live animals.

11. Liability for Pre- and On-Carriage.

When engaging to receive the goods at a place other than the Vessel's Port of Loading or to deliver the goods at a place other than the Vessel's Port of Discharge, the Carrier acts as the Merchant's Agent only and shall be entitled bisclarge, the darker acts as the whetchants agent only on shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising during any part of the transport other than that between the Port of Loading and Port of Discharge even though the freight for the whole transport has been collected by him.

12. Amount of Compensation.

(a) When the Carrier is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the Merchant or should have been so delivered in accordance with the Contract.

(b) The value of the goods shall be fixed according to the commodity exchange price or, if there be no such price, according to the current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.

(c) Higher compensation than provided for in Clause 10 may be claimed only when, with the consent of the Carrier, the value for the goods declared by the Shipper which exceeds the limits laid down in Clause 10 has been stated on the face of this Sea Waybill at the place indicated. In that case the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for that limit.

13. Delay, Consequential Loss, etc.
If the Carrier is held liable in respect of delay, consequential loss or damage other than loss of or damage to the goods, the liability of the Carrier shall be limited to the freight for the transport covered by this Sea Waybill, or to the limitation amount as determined in Clause 10, whichever is the lesser.

14. Defences and Limits for the Carrier, Servants, etc.

(a)The defences and limits of liability provided in this Sea Waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier for loss of or damage to the goods whether the action can be founded in contract or in tort.

(b) The Carrier shall not be entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided for in this Sea Waybill, if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from a personal act or omission of the Carrier done with intent to cause such loss or damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage ould probably result.

15. International Group of P&I Clubs/BIMCO Himalaya Clause for bills of lading and other contracts 2014

(a) For the purposes of this contract, the term "Servant" shall include the owners, managers, and operators of vessels (other than the Carrier); underlying carriers; stevedores and terminal operators; and any direct or indirect servant, agent, or subcontractor (including their own subcontractors), or any other party employed by or on behalf of the Carrier, or whose services or equipment have been used to perform this contract whether in direct contractual privity with the Carrier or not.

contractual privity with the Carrier or not.

(b) It is hereby expressly agreed that no Servant shall in any circumstances whatsoever be under any liability whatsoever to the Merchant or other party to this contract (hereinafter termed "Merchant") for any loss, damage or delay of whatsoever kind arising or resulting directly or indirectly from any act, neglect or default on the Servant's part while acting in the course of or in connection with the performance of this contract.

(c) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions in this clause, every exemption, limitation, condition and liberty contained herein

(other than Art III Rule 8 of the Hague/Hague-Visby Rules if incorporated herein) and every right, exemption from liability, defence and immunity of whatsoever nature applicable to the carrier or to which the carrier is entitled hereunder including the right to enforce any jurisdiction or arbitration provision contained herein shall also be available and shall extend to every such Servant of the carrier, who shall be entitled to enforce the same against the Merchant.

(d) (i) The Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation whether arising in (a) (i) the welcriant undertakes that no claim or allegation whether arising in contract, bailment, tort or otherwise shall be made against any Servant of the carrier which imposes or attempts to impose upon any of them or any vessel owned or chartered by any of them any liability whatsoever in connection with this contract whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of such Servant. The Servant shall also be entitled to enforce the foregoing covenant against the Merchant; and

(ii) The Merchant undertakes that if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, it will indemnify the carrier against all consequences

(e) For the purpose of sub-paragraphs (a)-(d) of this clause the Carrier is or shall be deemed to be acting as agent or trustee on behalf of and for the benefit of all persons mentioned in sub-clause (a) above who are its Servant and all such persons shall to this extent be or be deemed to be parties to this

IV. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS
